United We Stand

United We Stand

The elections have come and gone, leaving some of us relieved and others disappointed. These varied feelings are a part of democracy, but what matters most is that we remember one powerful truth: We are united as Americans. Together, we can overcome anything, because a house divided cannot stand.

Let's look to our veterans and service members for inspiration. Despite their diverse backgrounds and beliefs, they come together as a unified force, each willing to sacrifice for the greater good. Stories from the battlefield remind us of this unity—acts of courage like taking a bullet for a comrade or jumping on a grenade to save others. These are extraordinary examples of selflessness, dedication, and commitment to something greater than oneself.

As we face uncertain times, let's strengthen our communities and look out for one another. We must stay vigilant and, if we see something amiss, be brave enough to say something. We are blessed to live in the most extraordinary country in the world, one where brilliant minds and brave spirits help us overcome any challenge that comes our way. This resilience and unity are the American spirit at its finest.

As we move forward, let's remember the Golden Rule: to do unto others as we would have them do unto us. When we join hands in unity, forming a circle of life, dignity, and honor, that circle becomes unbreakable. Harmony helps us create something beautiful together, standing tall as one nation under God.

In God We Trust, and in each other, we stand strong.

Veterans Day

History of Veterans Day

Veterans Day is a U.S. legal holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars, and Veterans Day 2024 will occur on Monday, November 11. In 1918, on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in World War I, then known as “the Great War.”
